Journey to Japan, home of anime and manga culture, and explore popular sites and events that any anime enthusiast would enjoy.

Experience the highlights of Japan with a unique anime twist. Whether you consider yourself a mega-fan of Japanese animation or manga, a casual admirer, or just someone who wants to see Japan's quirky side, our Japan Anime Tours (Anime Flavor Tour Series) are fun for all ages! In addition to visiting anime attractions, you will also learn more about Japan's culture and historical sites from our experienced, English-speaking guides.

Start your tour in Japan's capital and busiest city, Tokyo. Visit the one-of-a-kind "Studio Ghibli Museum", a museum that showcases the work of the popular anime studio and the famous Hayao Miyazaki. Its whimsical and fantastical architecture will provide an immersive experience, making you feel like you are in one of Miyazaki's featured films. Another Tokyo highlight included in our Japan Anime Tours is Akihabara, a place known and loved by anime fans around the world. Shop for that exclusive anime figure you've been wanting, or test your skills at one of the many arcades!

Visit AnimeJapan on select tours, the largest anime convention in Japan! Enjoy the atmosphere with thousands of fans dressed as their favorite characters. If the season is right, visit Ueno Park to see lush pink cherry blossoms, which often decorate the backgrounds of anime or manga scenes. Visit Mt. Fuji 5th Station, then take an exhilarating bullet train ride before unwinding at your Japanese-style inn (Ryokan), where you can enjoy the natural bath waters of the hot springs.

Kyoto, once Japan's capital, offers a glimpse into the past and is rich in culture. Visit Kinkakuji Temple and Tenryuji Temple, seen in the anime "Keijo!!!!!!!!" and "K-On!" During Anime Flavor Cherry Blossom Tours, visit Maruyama Park in Kyoto, famous for its weeping cherry tree. Shinsaibashi, a popular shopping district in Osaka, features shops geared towards anime fans, such as the Sanrio Store and the JUMP Store, which features "Naruto", "One Piece", and "My Hero Academia" products exclusive to Japan.

Several tours will also include the highlights of the Shikoku Island and Chugoku regions (Hiroshima & Miyajima) and offer the chance to try Kobe Wagyu Beef which was used in "Food Wars!: Shokugeki no Soma". From museums about anime, to full blown anime-inspired streets, Anime Flavor tours are a great way to discover exclusive anime products and culture unique to Japan. Anime Flavor tours offer dates to see the country's famous cherry blossoms in spring, or visit during summer, autumn and winter vacation holidays.
